Olivia Newton-John scorches America with her "Physical" album and her new image.

WIN OR LOOSE... IT'S FOOTBALL

David Manley

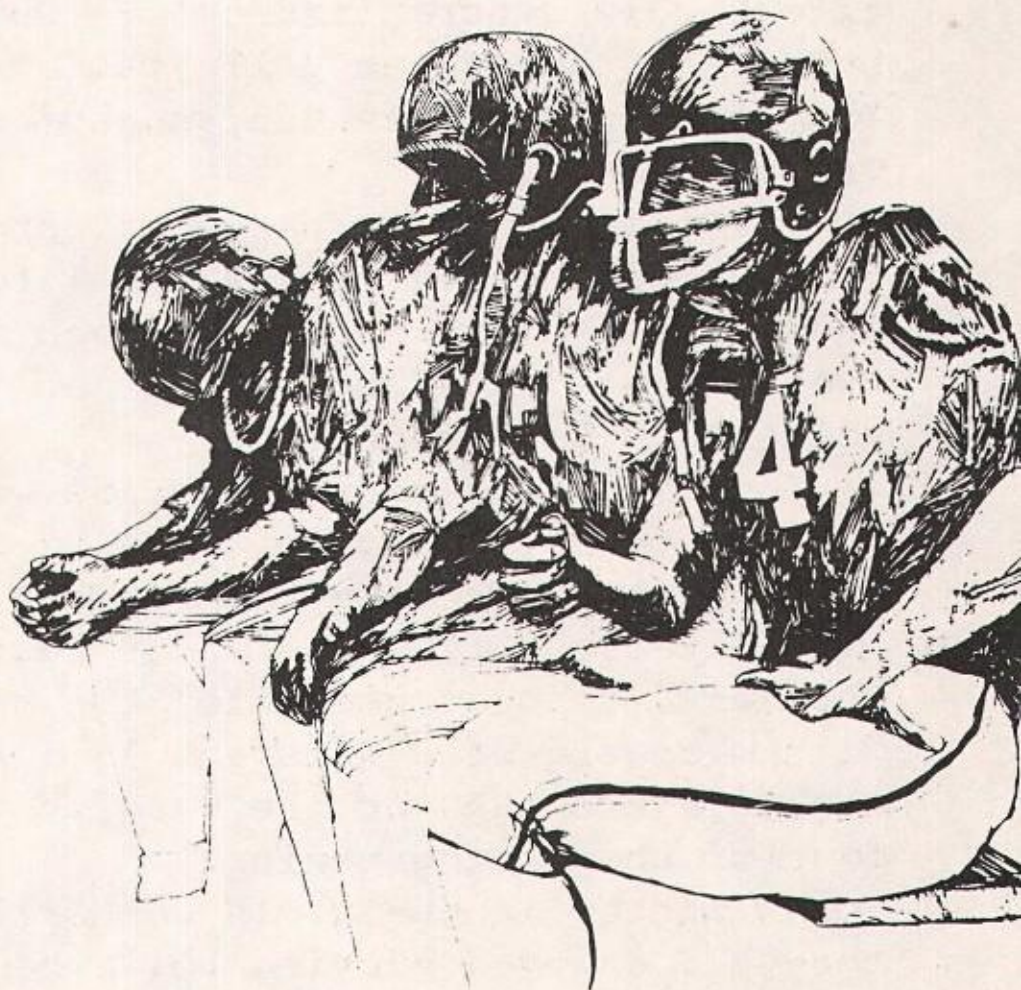

Even though the football team's record was 2 and 7 overall, the Crusaders played with the theme; "It's not if you win or loose, it's how you play the game." The Crusaders are looking forward to next season hoping it will be more successful.

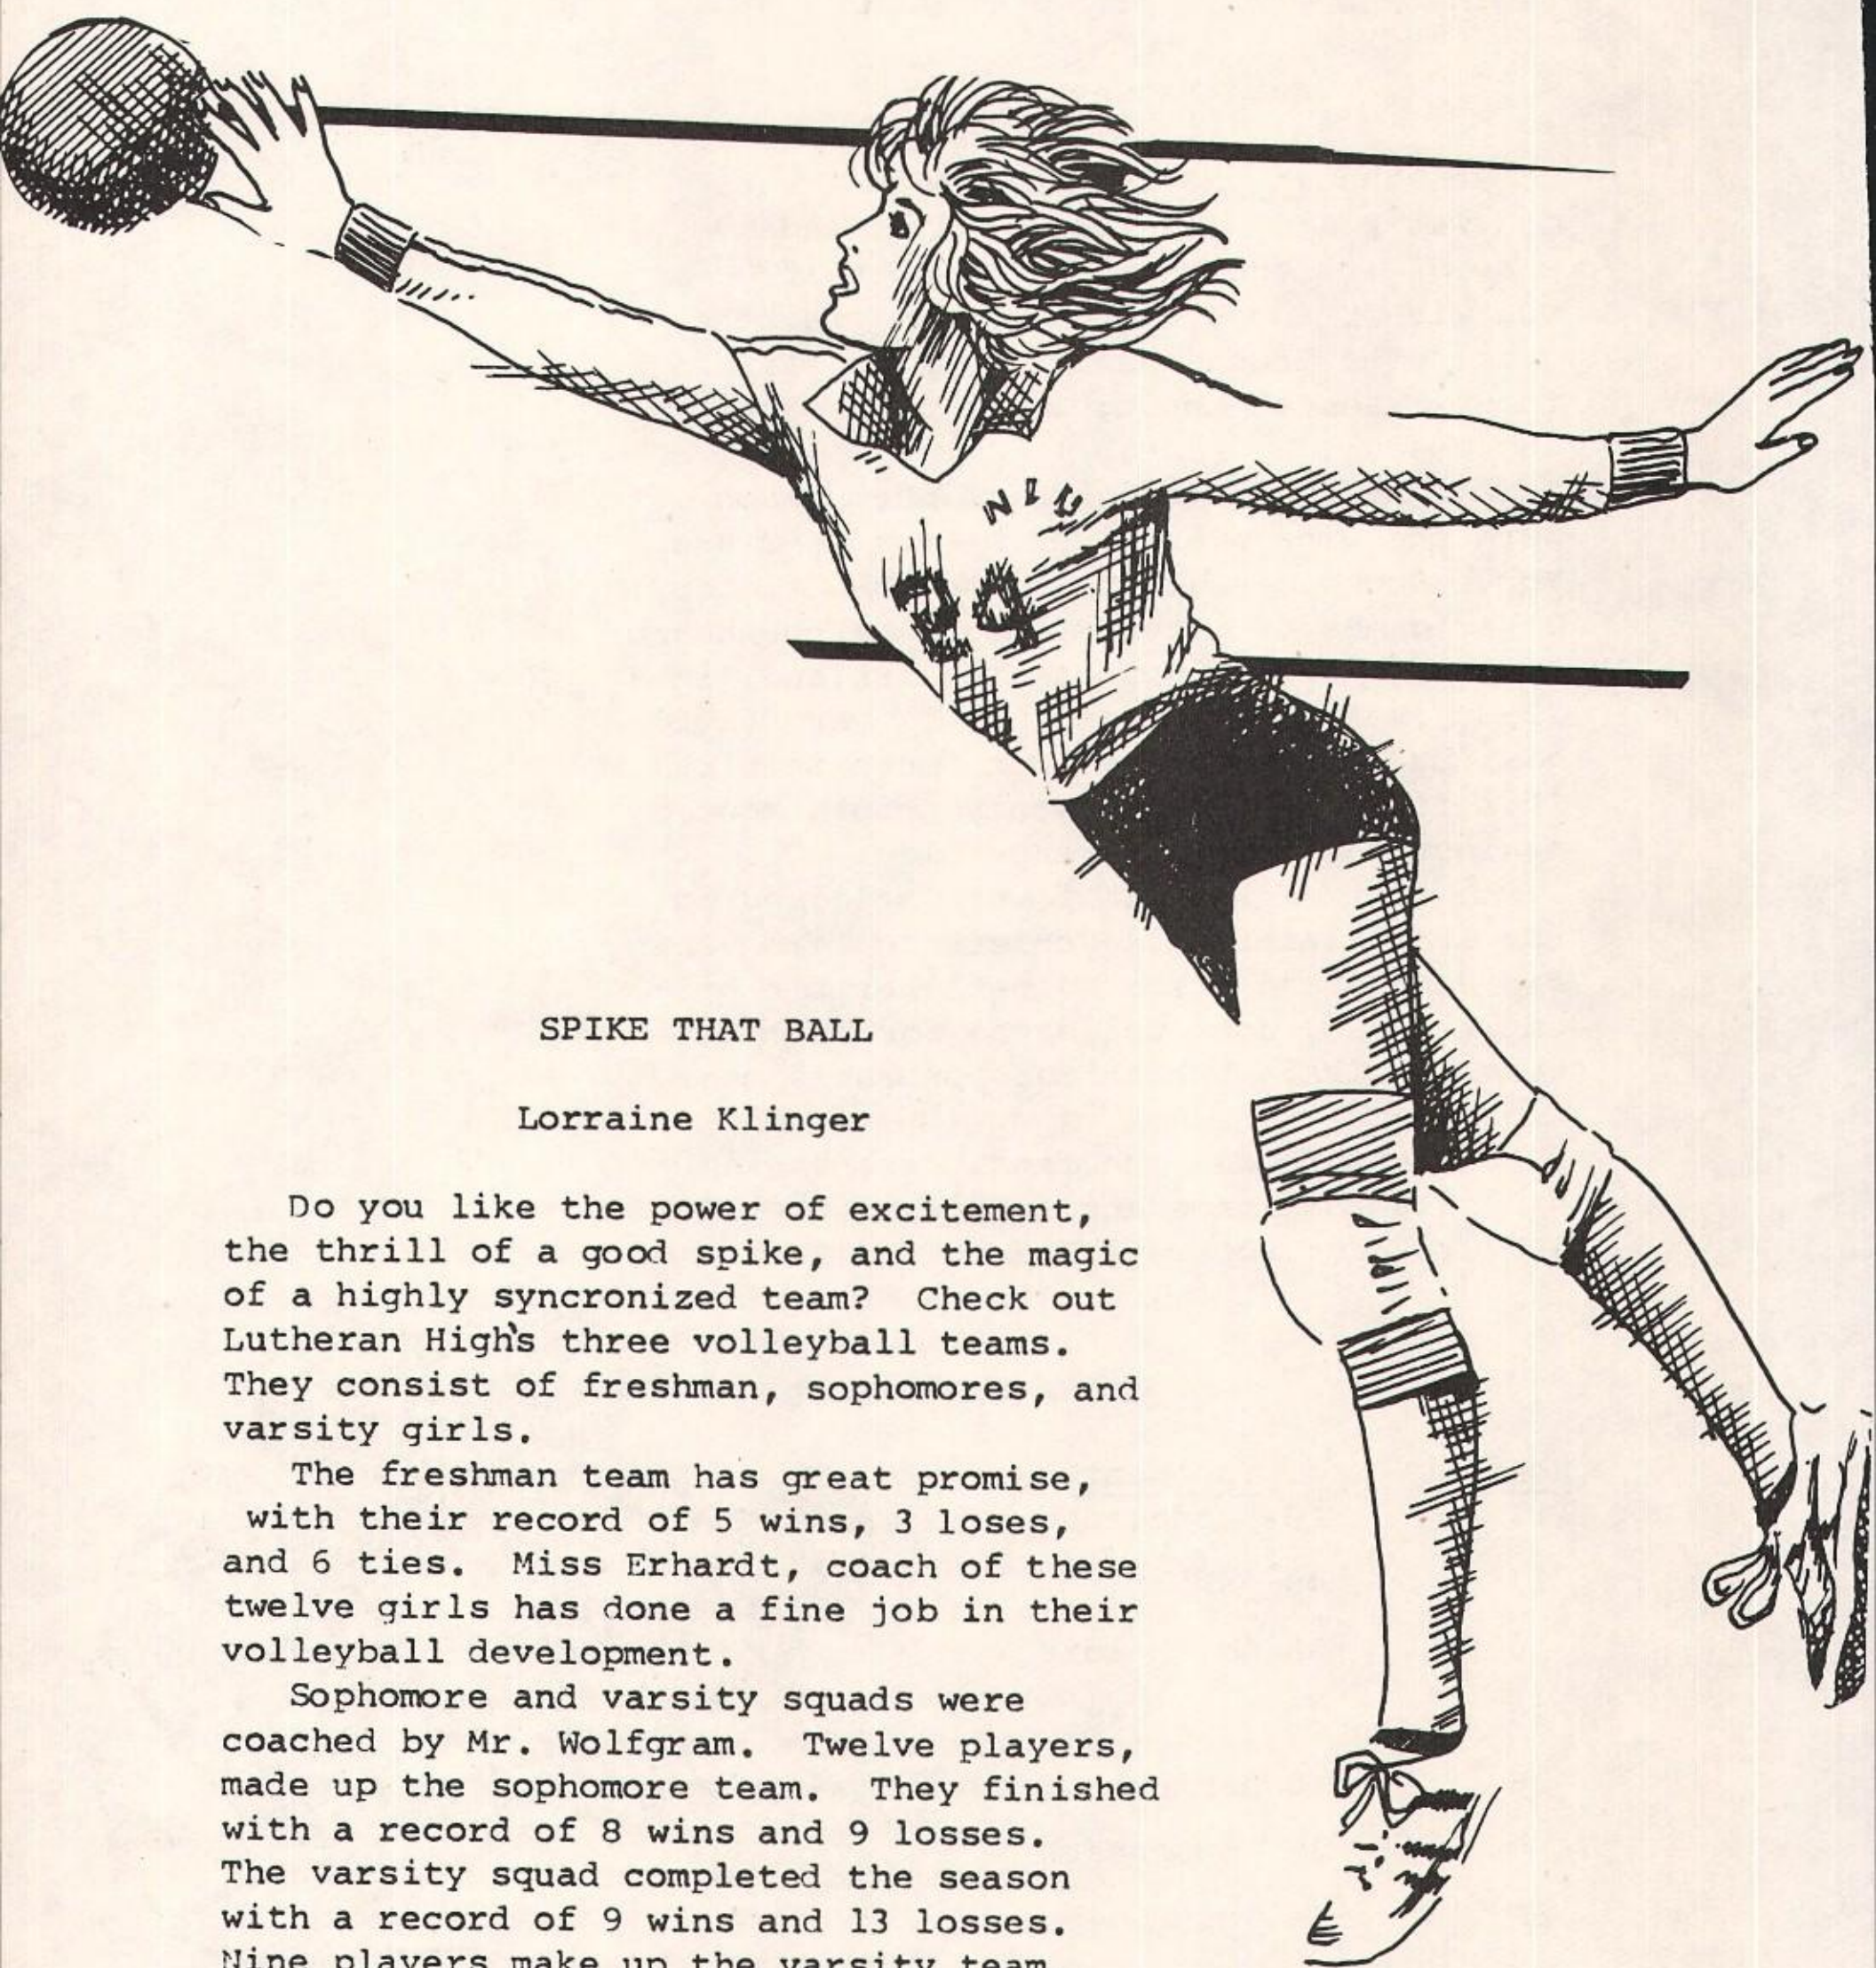

Some of the highlights of the season were the wins over Alden Hebron 26-0 and North Boone, in a very close 12-6 victory. Other games of interest would be the heartbreaking homecoming loss to Kirkland, in a 22-20 overtime game and the 27 yard field-goal by Ben Brooke against South Beloit. This fieldgoal was the only points scored against them in conference play.

The team members that were selected to the Trailblazers All-Conference Team were: Jim Hennig and Steve Nonnemacher for offensive team, John Childress for defensive team and Craig Lehman for honorable mention.

A thanks to all the fans, parents and students that came and supported the 1982 LHS Crusader Football Team.

SPIKE THAT BALL

Lorraine Klinger

Do you like the power of excitement, the thrill of a good spike, and the magic of a highly synchronized team? Check out Lutheran High's three volleyball teams. They consist of freshman, sophomores, and varsity girls.

The freshman team has great promise, with their record of 5 wins, 3 loses, and 6 ties. Miss Erhardt, coach of these twelve girls has done a fine job in their volleyball development.

Sophomore and varsity squads were coached by Mr. Wolfgram. Twelve players, made up the sophomore team. They finished with a record of 8 wins and 9 losses. The varsity squad completed the season with a record of 9 wins and 13 losses. Nine players make up the varsity team, four of them being seniors.

No matter if the girls won or lost, they all enjoyed playing volleyball, and are now looking forward to next year.

HOMECOMING FEVER

Beth Mannino

Auctions, banners, balloons, and rowdy cheering were all symptoms of the homecoming fever caught by Crusader students in September. The annual mania was highlighted by the royalty coronation Friday and the football game Saturday followed with the ever popular dance.

Pep Club mandated appropriate dress for the week and Monday students dressed in crazy attire; many chose to wear their duds reversed or backwards. Late in the day, students scrapped up shackles to purchase their favorite freshmen and dreamed of duties they would require of their indentures. Garbage sacks, mini skirts, holsters and cowboy boots were worn by many students on Tuesday, as it was cowboy and punk rock day. Mrs. Gjestvang came down with a case of homecoming fever as witnessed by her half black, half white hairstyle. Tuesday, freshmen obeyed their owners as many were seen crawling down the hallway in full drag.

Wednesday, "Happy Days", returned to LHS. Reborn were the poodle skirts, greasy hair, pony tails and bright red lipstick. Mrs. Corneilson led the way with a "bright" smile.

Thursday was spirit-filled purple and white day as the students showed their loyalty to Lutheran. Football players, cheerleaders, pom pon girls and students donned their purple and white in expectation of the spirit award for their respective classes. During the week, a transformation of the hallway took place. Each class was to decorate a section of the hallway in a newly formed homecoming competition.

Friday, the halls were filled with glamour girls and handsome beaus as dress up day was specified by Pep Club. After school, a special pep rally heightened the spirit of the team, and the seniors won the spirit stick. The overall spirit award, however, went to the class of '85. That night, the annual Talent Show recognized the abilities of various Lutheran High students. Coke drinking, ice cream eating, and three-legged races were popular events with the crowd. At the end of the evening, John Childress was chosen homecoming king, and he crowned his queen Barb Oelke.

The highlights of the week, the football game, turned out to be a disappointment as the Crusaders fell to the Kirkland-Hiawatha Hawks, during the last minute of the game. Later, however, no sign of sorrow was seen at the annual homecoming dance. "Anthem" provided the music and the students provided the fun as the dance was a big success.

READY TO CHEER

Valerie Allman

"Hey, are you ready to cheer?" The Crusaders are here. The 1982-83 season held many changes and many additions to the cheer-leading squad.

One of the major changes in the make-up of the squad, was the fact that there were nine on the squad. The cheerleaders had many fund raisers to pay for the new uniforms. The varsity cheerleaders consisted of Sophomores, Juniors, and Seniors. Melanie Fordell and Barb Oelke were the two Seniors, Julie Kerestes, Tracey Oellig, and Beth Mannino were the Juniors. Valerie Allman, Beth Cunningham, and Angie Johnson were the Sophomores. Shirlee Peterson was the alternate for the varsity squad.

To help the varsity squad in practice, Marge Lake, one of the Crusader fans, volunteered her time and talent. She gave the squad a new aspect of cheerleading.

A new look was added during basketball season. There was a Freshmen squad added to cheer for Freshmen basketball and the Sophomore Tournament. It is hoped that the members of this squad will try-out for varsity squad next year. Those on the squad were; Michelle Dettman, Nancy Dierking, Shannon Enderson, Debbie Koser, Lisa Sweeny, and Beneta Weatherall.

The advisor for both squads was Miss Burch. She continued to work to bring the squad closer together to create an atmosphere full of spirit.

PEP CLUB IS FANTASTIC

Lorraine Klinger

Where does that school spirit come from? Whose responsible for getting Lutheran High all pepped up for the "Big Game?" Don't you know it's Pep Club. You say you want to know more, like who is in it, and what does Pep Club do?

Pep Club is just what it sounds like, a group of students that want to add a little thrill to the school. It's a place to make friends and then go to all those wild football and basketball games. Pep Club always plans a couple of surprises for the school during homecoming week. Among these surprises were an ice cream eating contest, and three legged races. They also made the banner the guys bombard through on home games.

Who helps run this group of explosive students? Miss Erhardt is the advisor and the group officers are President: Jerry Cazaniga, Vice-president: Chris Mueller, Secretary: Tracy Oellig and Treasurer: Bonnie Henning.

HALF TIME KICKS

Sue Meyer

Bright smiles, high kicks, and lots of purple and white were the order of the day. The Lutheran High Pom Pon squad received help from YMCA choreographer, Carm Rongere and the Rock Valley Pom Pon girls. On December 4 the squad attended a special clinic hosted by the RVC squad:

Captain Lisa Robertson led the girls to an exciting season and was pleased with their overall performance.

HAVE GAVEL WILL TRAVEL

Rob Davidson

One might ask, "What more can such an unbelievable, stupendous, titanic, dazzling, noble, brave, honest, good-looking, and modest organization do than they have done in the past?" A lot! After all, lets remember the famous words used by President Carter in an address to the National Institute for the Chronically Academic. He stated "...in these days of trying times, one must look to the true organizations, those which are undervalued, overworked, and fun-loving." I'm pretty sure these were his words, but what the heck, we know he was referring to the LHS Student Council. Yes, one should realize that much was done and much will be done.

Behind the direction of President Tom Wachter and advisor Mr. Dale Wolfgram, the Student Council has brought us many activities such as the new student get-together, bonfire, movie nights, and our ever famous dances.

The Student Council is the governing body of students that arranges various activities.

THATS THE WAY THE BALL BOUNCES

David Manley

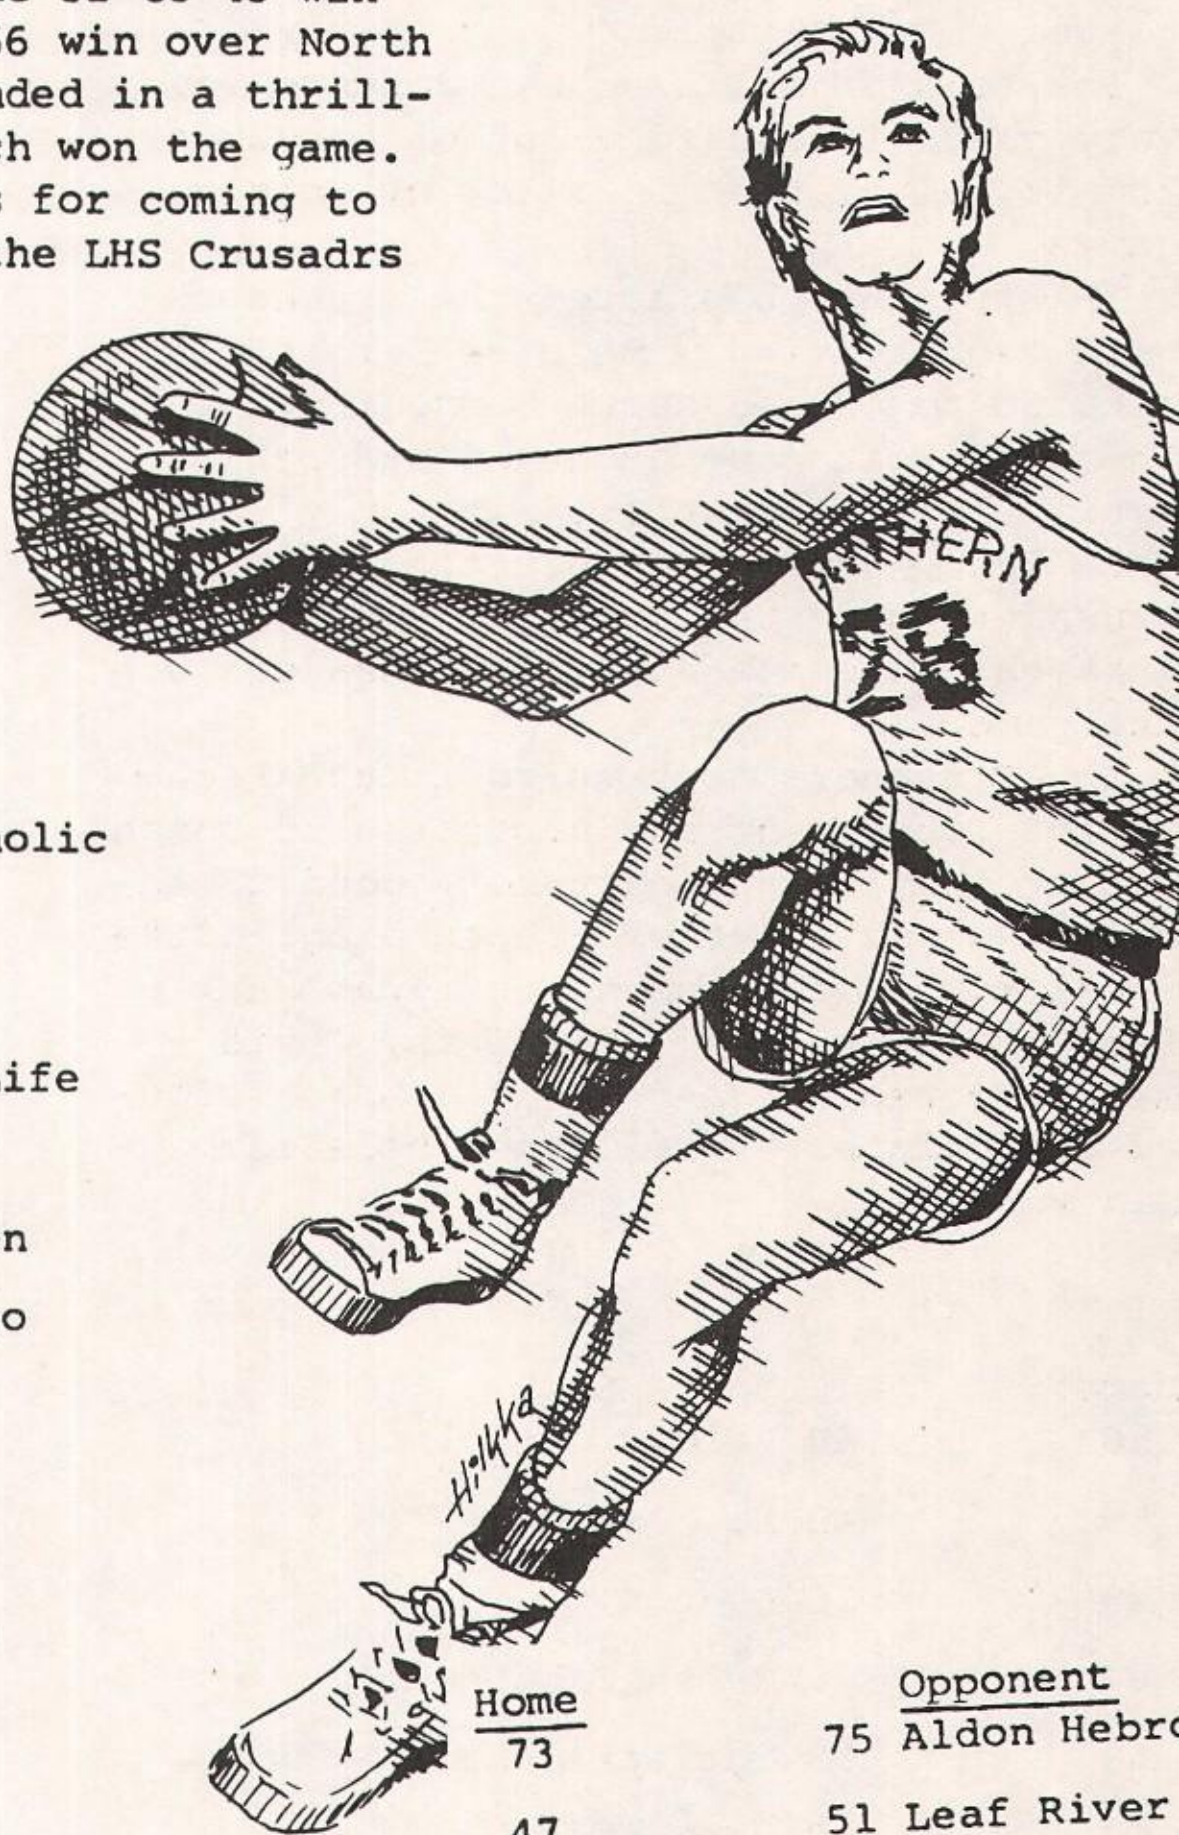

The ball didn't exactly bounce their way. With a 3-23 record, the varsity basketball team was plagued by fouls, bad defense and a slow offense throughout the season.

In the first game of the season, four out of the five starters fouled out in the last quarter. They lost that game to Winnebago 38 to 91.

In their first win, the LHS basketball team dominated Alden Hebron from the tip-off and this dominance continued to the final quarter, for a 73 to 49 final score. The other two wins were the 52 to 45 win over Byron and the 68 to 66 win over North Boone. Both these games ended in a thrilling second effort try which won the game.

A thanks to all the fans for coming to the games and supporting the LHS Crusaders Basketball Team.

PLAYERS... NOT QUITERS

David Manley

"When the going gets tough, the tough gets going." That is the motto of the fresh-soph basketball team, who ended up with 10 wins and 11 lost record. This was mostly due to their difficulty in getting the rebounds and the bad passes. Overall the team lacked in height, with only three people over six-foot but they made up for this with their quickness and ability to make the outside shots. They also did not quit when they were behind; they just stayed in there and played.

The team's well executed defense was very good, it caused a lot of turnovers and it helped them in a lot of critical games.

The fresh-soph started their season with two exciting wins over Beloit Catholic 50 to 49 and North Boone 59 to 49. In the Beloit game Lutheran was behind until the last quarter. With only 8 seconds left, the teams were tied and the Crusaders were up at the freethrow line. That shot was made and the Crusaders won the game.

The Crusaders took third in the Pecatonica Tournament and according to coach Dobler they had an extremely good freshman team and a lot of outstanding individual sophomores, among them was Mark Poellot who scored 194 points, Chris Meyer scored 244 and Scott Johnson scored 103 points. Overall the whole team did very well.

1 2 3 LET'S GO!

Valerie Allman

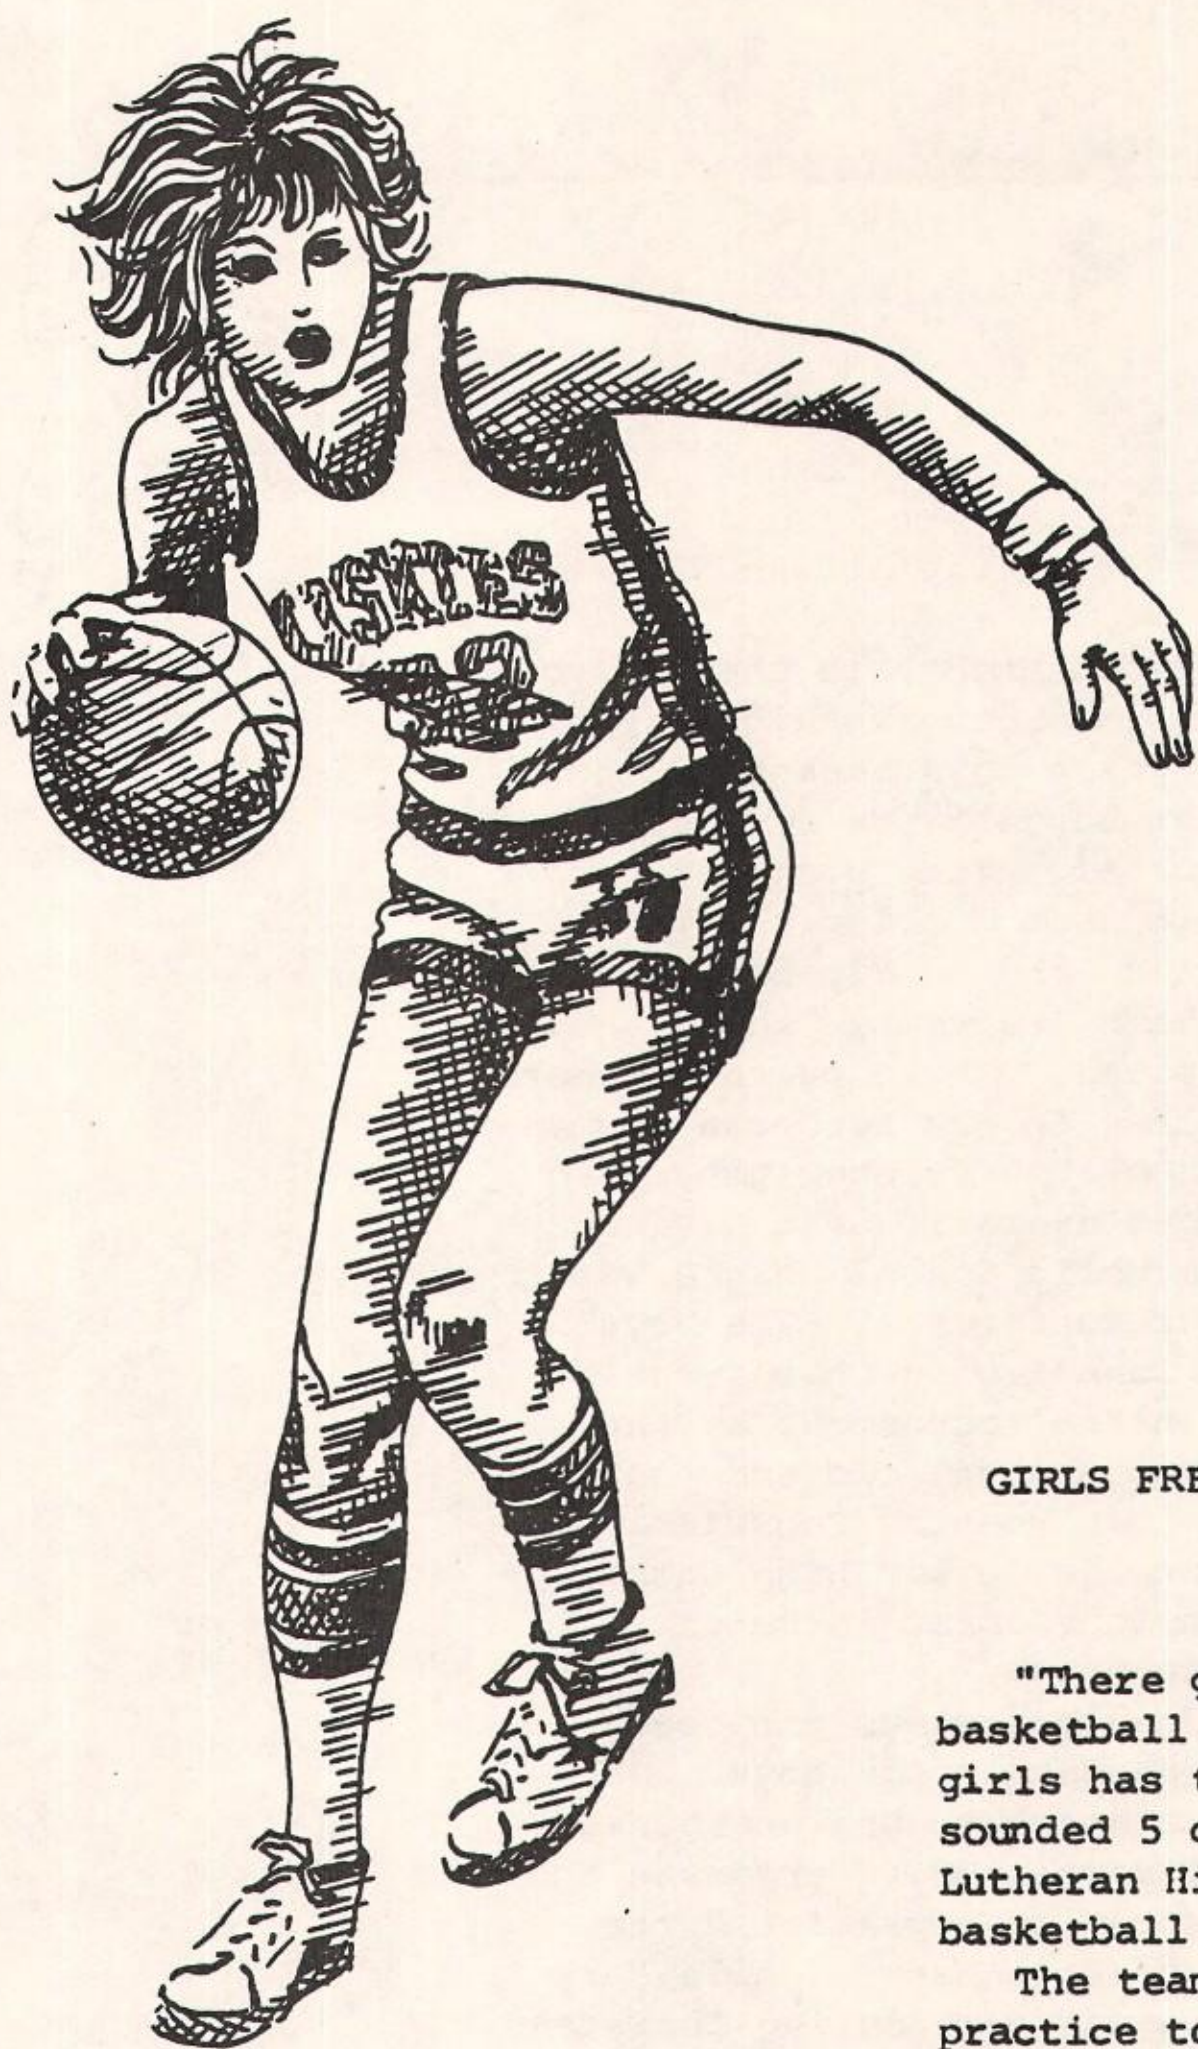

Small but mighty is the way you may describe Lutheran High's first Seventh grade boys basketball team. All eight boys of the Seventh grade participated. They worked together to form a hard working team.

The team did an especially good job in both leagues in which they participated. Their overall record was 13-11. In the Lutheran Elementary School Conference, they tied for second overall. The Seventh grade Catholic School League was the other conference. The boys won the Consolation Championship Trophy in the tournament at the end of the season. To end their season, they won the Consolation Trophy in the Junior High Catholic-Lutheran Tournament in Beloit, Wisconsin.

Dr. Juergensen was the coach for the Seventh grade boys. The assistant coach to Dr. Juergensen was Bill Barr. Dr. Juergensen and the boys really appreciated the efforts of Bill Barr. While Mark Donaldson was home during Christmas for a month he helped Dr. Juergensen coach. Mark spent all his time and effort to help improve and bring out their skills.

With all the efforts of Dr. Juergensen and the hard work of the boys, it turned out to be a very successful season.

GIRLS FRESH-SOPH BASKETBALL TEAM

Kurt Elling

"There goes the buzzer! Another basketball win for Lutheran High girls has taken place!" These words sounded 5 out of 18 games played by Lutheran High girls fresh-soph basketball team.

The team put in many hours of practice to achieve their victories. Miss Danielle Ehrhardt, the team coach, used Roberta Runberg's scoring and rebounding techniques, and Nancy Dierking's dribbling and ball control to lead the team to victories over teams such as Alden Hebron, and Christian Life.

A highlight game of the season was played against Durand. Roberta Runberg scored 32 points and Lutheran High defeated Durand 48 to 28.

A LEG RIDE TO THE MAT

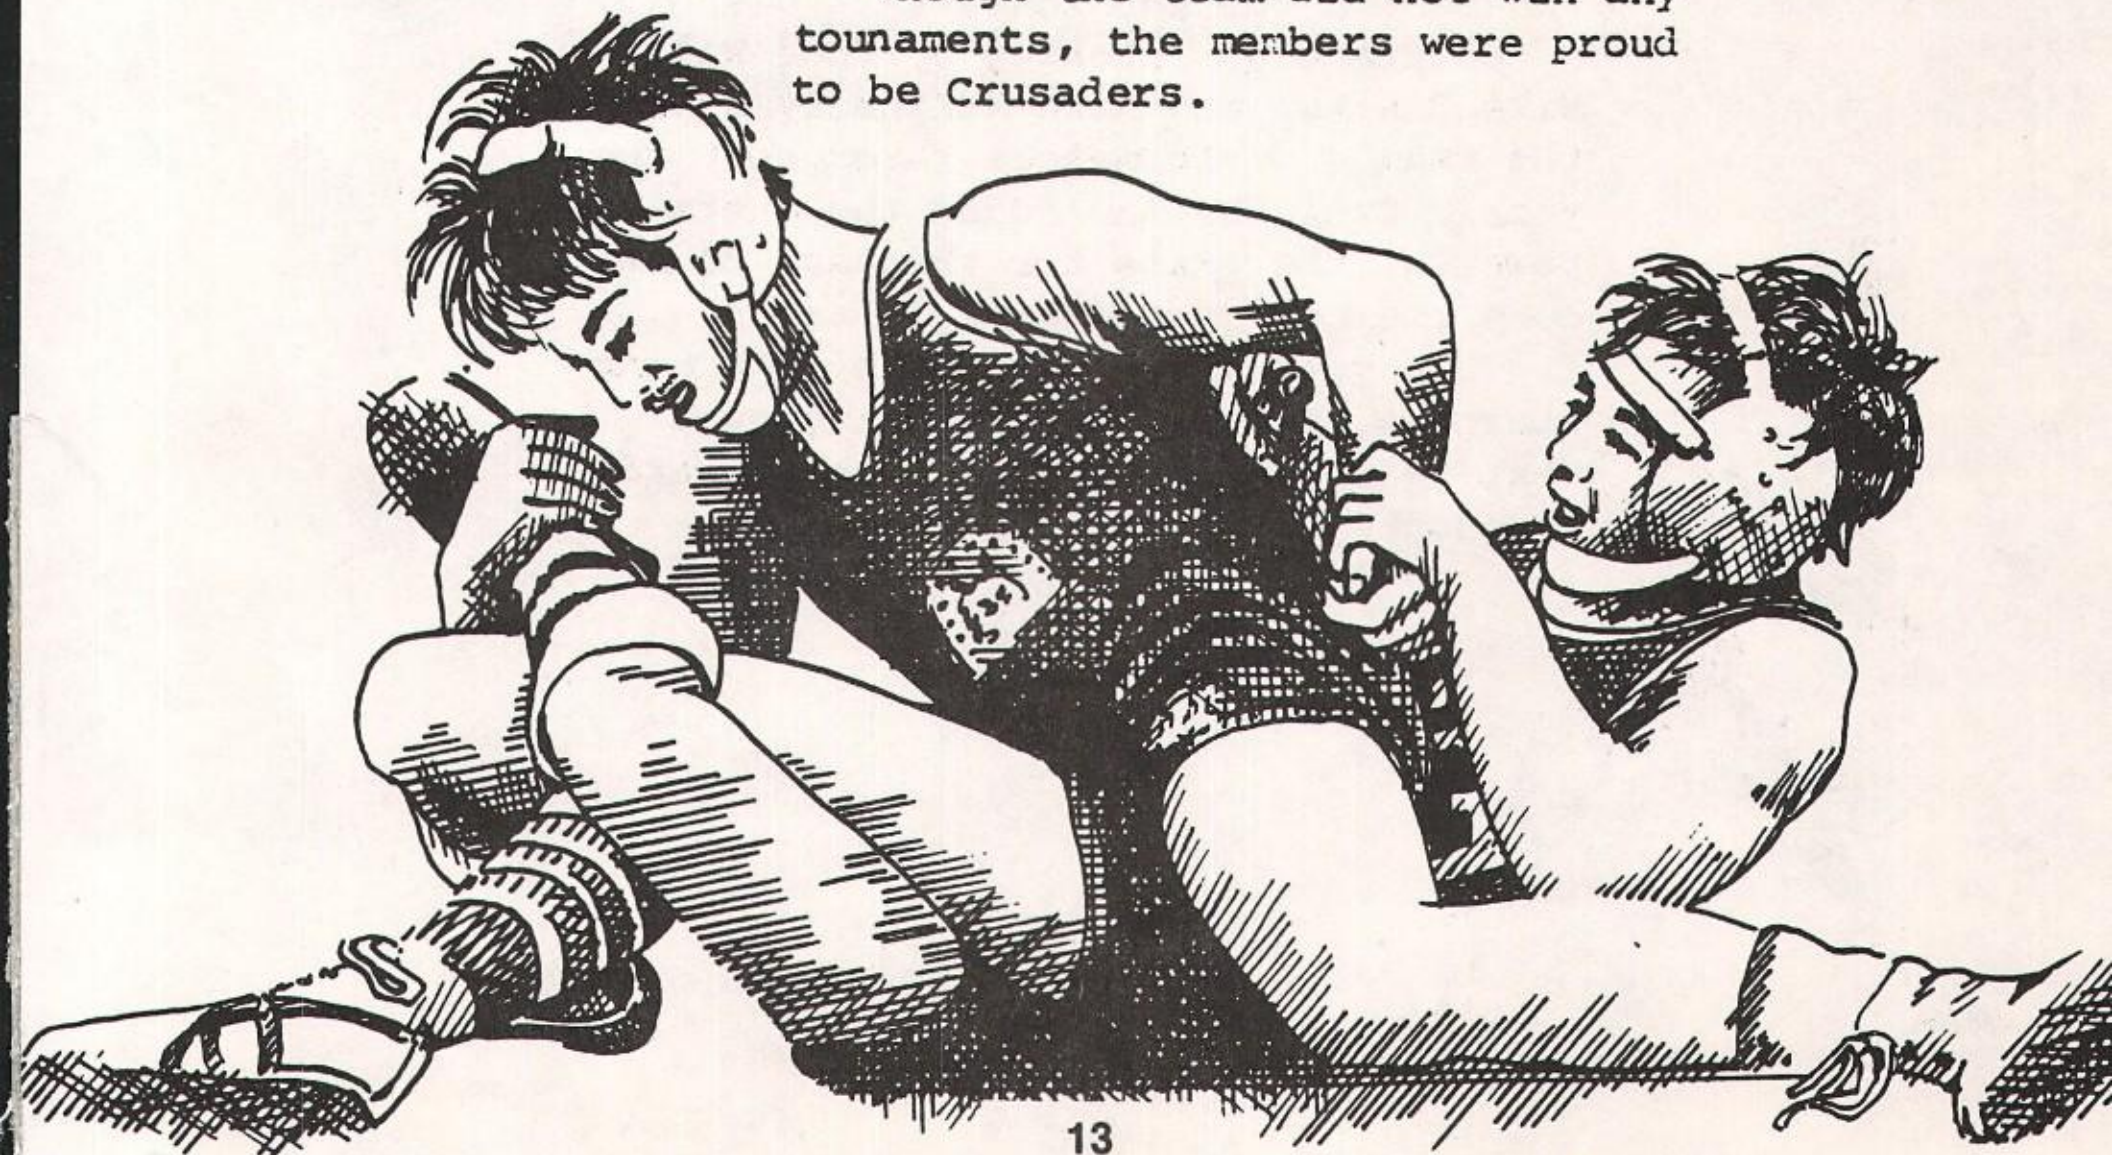

Kurt Elling

They strove for excellence. They tried to be the best possible wrestlers. They were the Crusaders' wrestlers, and they were proud of it. The fans and the boosters also showed their pride by cheering the team on as they competed against Durand, Stillman Valley, Mount Morris, Alden Hebron, Winnebago, Marengo, Richmand Burton, and Northwest Academy.

The team had four home matches and appreciated the support from students and parents. The wrestlers look forward to additional team members and continued crowd support in fall.

WHO'S ON FIRST???

Tim Payne

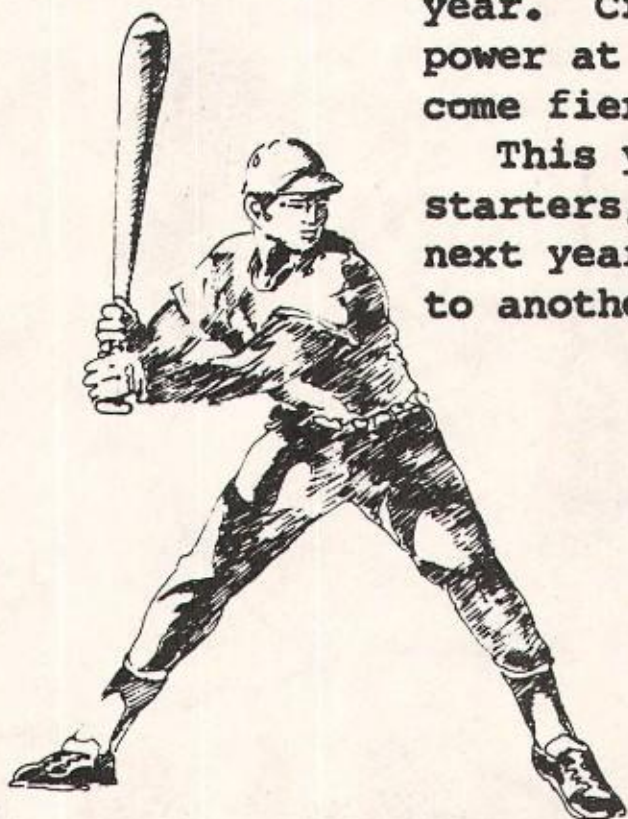

With the beginning of spring comes the start of a new sport. Hot dogs, apple pie, and Chevrolet. One thing is obviously missing from the set of words. You said it...BASEBALL. Yes, along with the flowers, baseball blooms with spring.

The Crusaders knew that they were in for another tough season this year from the start. A new year brought some exciting new challenges for coach Dobler and the team. One of which was the team's independence from any conference. Along with the independence came an added obstacle of playing the bigger Rockford area schools.

The season started out slowly with a number of rained and snowed out games, but the Crusaders gained momentum as the season rolled along.

Outstanding pitching by Todd Wilson, Mike Dierks, and Mike McKinstry anchored the team's performances throughout the year. Craig Lehman added the extra power at the plate for the team to become fierce competitors.

This year there were nine returning starters, and with many coming back next year, the Crusaders look forward to another successful season.

Beth Mannino

Hard work, shin splints and sweat are all familiar elements to the members of this year's track team. The season started early, and getting in shape was the main concern during the first half of the season.

The teams were relatively young, with only two seniors: Jim Hennig and Melanie Fordell. Other outstanding members of the team were Chris Mueller and Bonnie Hennig, who often won their respective events.

The season was prosperous, and all members were well pleased with the outcome.

CHECK THEM OUT

Tim Payne

With all the ups and downs of most sports, there is one team that seems to remain consistently good. If you guessed the Chicago Cubs you were wrong. But if you said the Lutheran High Chess Team, you were right.

This year the chess team showed great knowledge and understanding of the game, enough knowledge in fact, to be led by the head coach Mr. Stueber, to 5th place down state.

A senior, Tom Wachter, qualified for individuals, and displayed his talent to the best chess players in the state.

The members of the varsity team include: Tom Wachter, Bill Hartenburger, Frank Ciprys, Kurt Johnson, and Mike Latzke. The JV team consisted of Mike Dierks, Kelly Lawver, Kevin Anderson, Jason Ostic, Jon Schuknecht, and Barb Mießler.

One of the highlights of the season was the win over Aldon-Hebron. In the match, all ten of the Lutheran team members defeated their opponents.

The varsity team ended their season with a 3-4-3 record, while the JV team posted a whopping 8-2 record to finish 2nd in conference play.

With the young team's excellent skill, potential, and brilliant showing, both in conference and down state, they give great promise for the future.

TALENTED PEOPLE

Julie Kerestes

Talent...one of God's many gifts to us. The ability to show these talents is a talent in itself. A select group of students at Lutheran High School have the ability to show their talents in the art and journalism fields. In order to recognize excellence in these fields, the National Art Honor Society and Quill and Scroll have been established.

On Friday, February 25, three new members were added to these societies. Shawn Reid and Bruce Barnum were inducted into National Art Honor Society, while Beth Mannino was inducted into Quill and Scroll. Beth is now the only member of Quill and Scroll, where Bruce and Shawn joined Debby Walker, Julie Kerestes, Sandy Kufahl, and Neal Rhodes in Lutheran High School's chapter of National Art Honor Society.

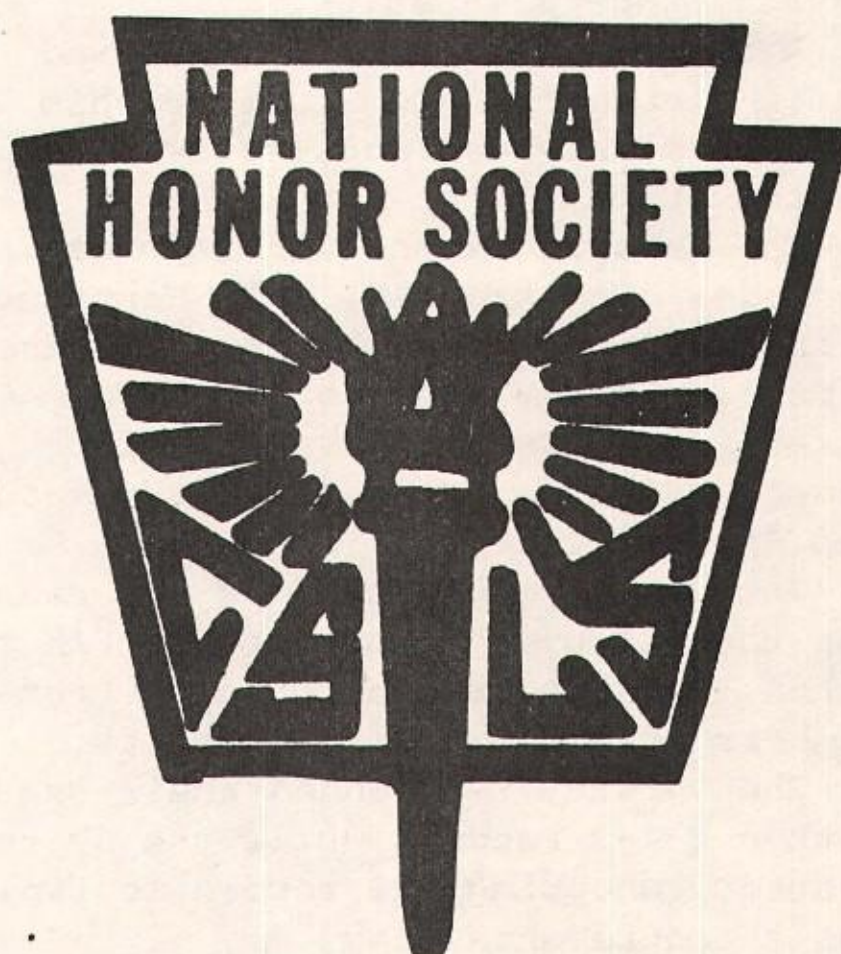

HONORED SOCIETY

Beth Mannino

Learning to bring out the best in yourself and others combine to make-up the characteristics necessary to become a member of the National Honor Society. Among these characteristics are the desire to excel scholastically by setting goals, developing morals, hard work and determination.

Membership is based on academic success, leadership, truth, loyalty, initiative, judgement and friendship. Selected students who possess these qualities are inducted annually at a candlelight ceremony. This year, the induction was held on February 25, and seven new members joined the four existing members. These new members were: seniors, John Childress; Lisa Robertson; and Todd Wilson; and juniors Bonnie Hennig; Kristy Iverson; Julie Kerestes and Beth Mannino.

Installed with these members was the hope for continuing success and achievement.

HOW GREAT'S THY ART

Kurt Elling

The artistic endeavors of talented LHS students were displayed in several talent competitions throughout the year. Their art work proved once again their ability to compete with schools much larger and much better equipped than LHS.

The many awards given to these students are a tribute to their wise use of God given talents.

DEADLINES, HEADLINES, AND BYLINES!

Valerie Allman

Extra! Extra! Read all about it! That is what you might hear from one of the staff members of the tri-weekly Coat of Arms newspaper.

There were thirteen students on the staff, under the direction of advisor Mrs. Corneilson. The two co-editors were Kristi Iverson and Tom Wachter. Two artistic students tried their hands at cartoons, they were Clark Childress and Shawn Reid. Shawn was also their literary editor. Other staff members included: Dave Bieck as lay-out editor, Keith GeRue as the Printer, and Ron King as Sports Editor. The Reporters were: Sandy Detrick, Dris Moellor, Ann Polzin, Randy Pope, Roberta Runberg, and Tracy Tyler.

There were a couple of donations made to help out the staff. The Iversons' donated a Strip Printer. The Strip Printer is used to print the headlines. With the help from the Bidcks, the staff was able to have Borg Warner's print the paper for free.

With all the workmanship of the staff they were able to publish a very informative paper. The staff managed to keep everyone who read the paper up to date on the happenings at Lutheran High School.

MAKE YEARBOOK YOUR BOOK

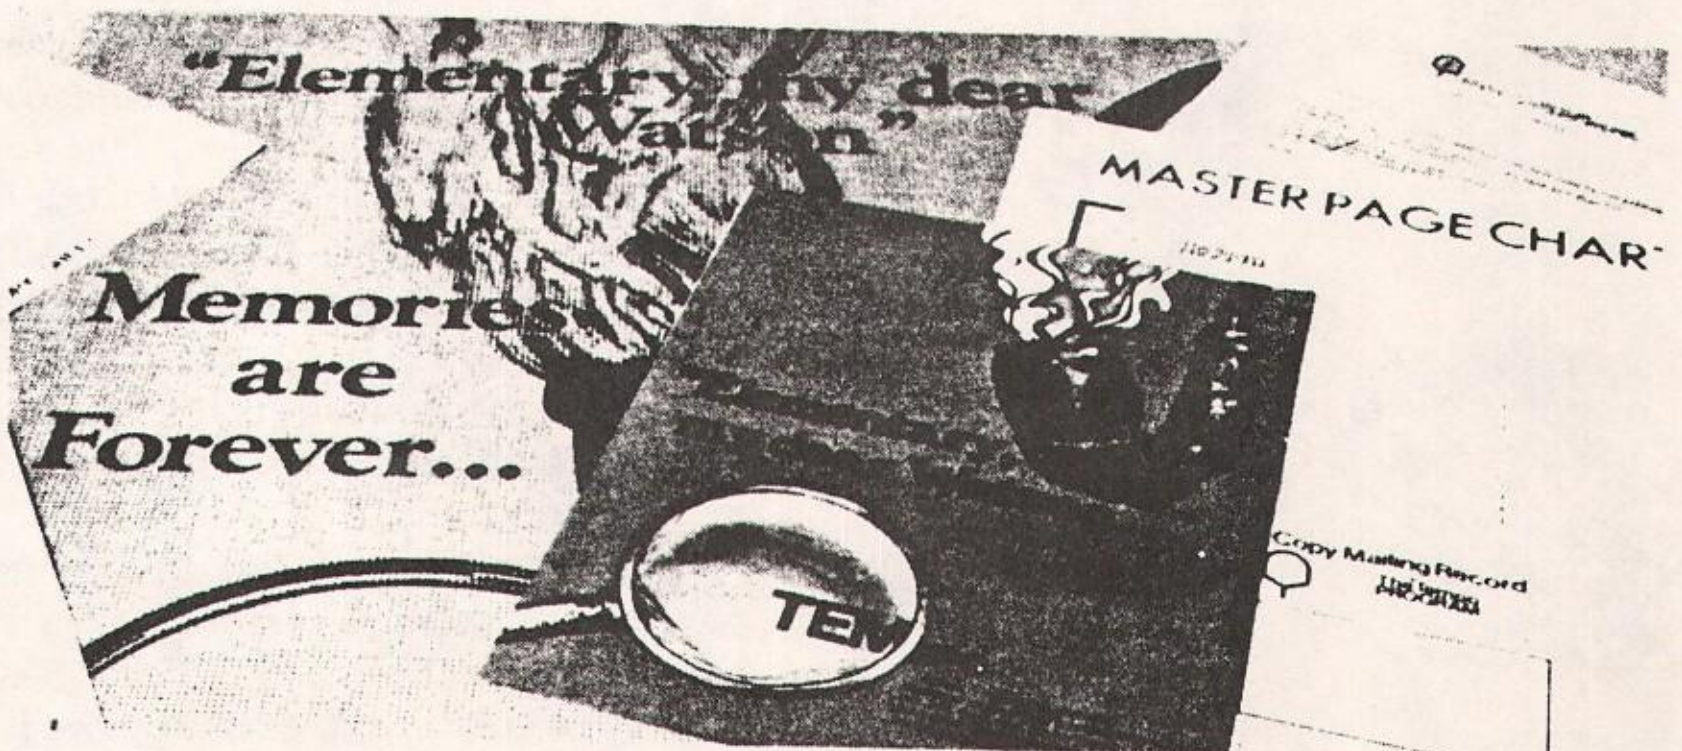

Tim Payne

You never know where they'll turn up. They're out on the streets selling ads, they're in the classroom working on layouts, or they're wandering the halls selling candybars. It's a bird...it's a plane...no, it's a yearbook staff member.

Again this year, the Lutheran High School yearbook staff worked together to create an exceptional annual under the leadership of advisor Mrs. Uram, and editor Beth Mannino. The staff teamed up with Taylor Publishing Company and their representative Lisa Stafford to produce this years' book.

In addition to the students that worked on carefully planned layouts, there were others who spent time during and after school, selling candybars to raise extra money for the class. The regular yearbook staff includes: Julie Kerestes, Beth Mannino, Lorraine Klinger, Becky Galster, Sue Meyer, David Manley, Tim Payne, Valerie Allman, Rob Davidson, and Steve Swanson. The students who helped raise extra money were: Chad Brazle, Mark Weidner, Cindy Latzke, Brian Meyer, Kris Morse, and Teresa Powers.

Although most of the staff was inexperienced at the beginning of the year, they were eager to learn and soon showed the savvy of seasoned staff members.

GOD'S FAVORITE PEOPLE

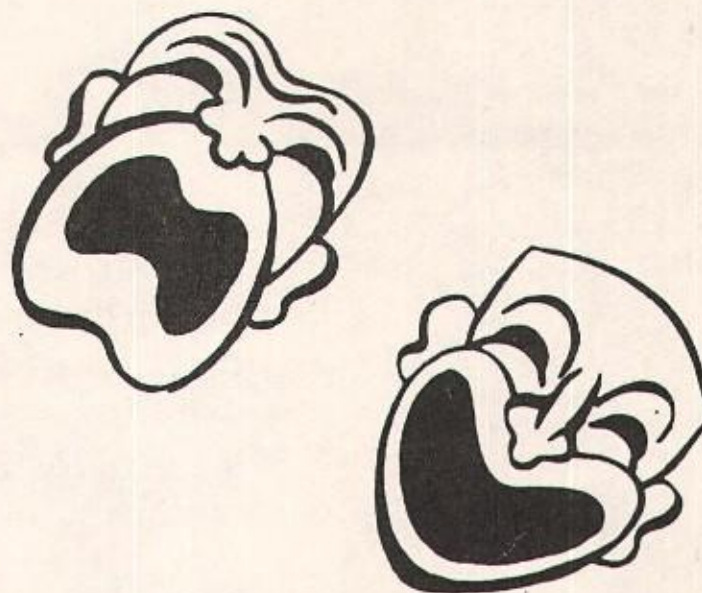

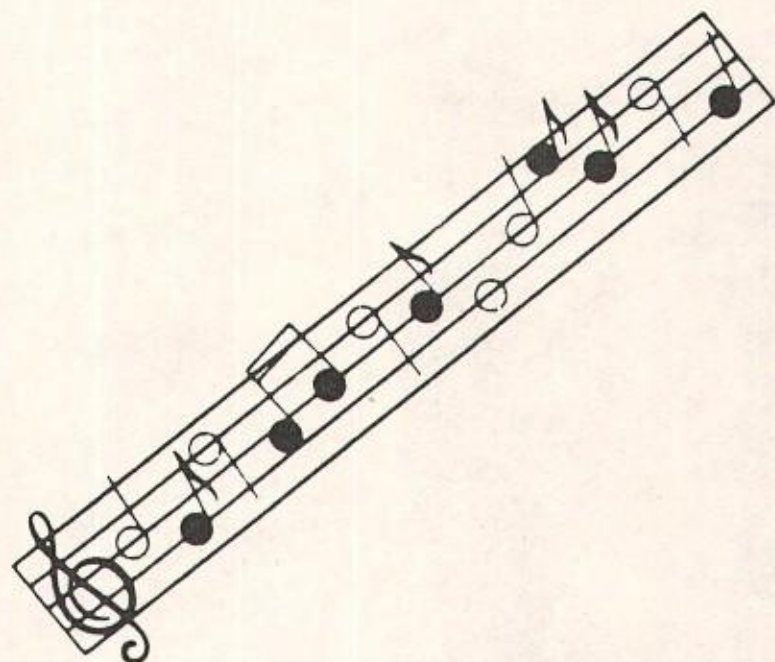

Rob Davidson

Light and cameras...but mostly action. On March 18th, and 19th, the Lutheran Players presented the religious comedy, "God's Favorite", a Neil Simon production, under the direction of Miss Burch. They frequently had meetings to organize production on the play. They also went out on weekends to different area theaters. The cast of "God's Favorite" in order of appearance was as follows: Steve Gentry-Joe Benjamin, Mark Weidner-Ben Benjamin, Elizabeth Kopp-Sarah Benjamin, Lisa Robertson-Rose Benjamin, David Poellot-Hutchins, Sandy Sletten-Mollie, Kurt Elling-David Benjamin, and Chad Brazle as Sidney Lipton.

The club members sponsor lunches to defray the cost of production. They used the money earned for costumes and props.

The officers of the Lutheran Players are: Pres. Jim Hennig, Vice Pres. Bonnie Hennig, and Sec/Tres. Roberta Hennig. The advisors for the club are Pastor Storck and Miss Burch.

Besides "God's Favorite", they also presented a chapel-type drama called Spoon River Anthology, the memories of past residences of Spoon River.

JUST A NOTE

Julie Kerestes

One of the most joyous sounds in this world is the sound of music. It may vary from classical to rock, country to the blues, and jazz to songs of praise. The choir at Lutheran High School best describes the last category.

Under the direction of Miss Burch, the choir practiced for many performances throughout the school year. During the first semester, much of their time was aimed toward the Christmas Concert. This annual event was held on Saturday, December 18, at Good Shepherd Lutheran Church. The theme to the concert was "Hark the Glad Sound", and such a glad sound it was. Also during the first semester the choir sang on Sunday mornings at many Lutheran churches.

As like the first semester, the second semester was aimed toward the annual Spring Concert. This year's concert was held on May 7th and 8th at Lutheran High School. Also during second semester was the Conference Festival. This is where all the choirs in the Trailblazer conference get together and form a mass choir.

The Lutheran High Choir has brought joy to many nursing homes and churches throughout the year. They have showed great talent and are appreciated by everyone who hears them.

EXHILARATING AUXILIARY

Julie Kerestes

Hard work and determination. These are words that well describe the members of Ladies Auxiliary. The hard work describes all the time and labor put into the Holiday Bazaar and the Crusaders Thrift Shop. These fund raisers show much determination to help Lutheran High School with their debt.

The 1982-83 Holiday Bazaar was held on November 13, and showed great profit. The ladies put many hours into the making of food and crafts. These products were sold along with donations from churches and families, and the profits were well worth the effort.

Another money maker, also being a service, is the Crusader Thrift Shop. This "garage-sale" type of organization helps the community along with providing work study grants for students of Lutheran High School. Retail items are sold at the Crusader Thrift Shop and the profits go to the school. The products sold are all donated from the staff and friends of L.H.S.

Although these are important fund raisers, the Ladies Auxiliary helps L.H.S. in another way. Every Thursday, the women serve lunch to the and falculty of L.H.S. These include such menus as tacos, spagetti, lasagna, hamburgers, and chicken sandwiches. The women make these lunches and are sometimes taken for granted by the students.

The ladies put in their time for the benefit of the school. Thank-you ladies for what you've done and keep up the good work!

Crusader aiders to the rescue! It is the Booster Club's goal to further go sportsmanship amongst students and parents. They sponsor such fund raising activities as the annual Spring Fling, the immensely popular Chili Day, the T.V. raffles, game concessions, and the annual Fall Ball.

The officers are: President, Mr. Donald Oelke; Vice President, Mr. Gerald Cazaniga; Secretary, Doug Stock; and Treasurer, Dan Hennig. These all are the people in charge of the construction of the garage and the keeping of the grounds.

"JUST BETWEEN YOU AND ME"

Beth Mannino

"Just Between You and Me," provided an appropriate theme for the couples that attended this year's Junior-Senior Prom. Held at the Clock Tower Inn Convention Center, the prom also provided the seniors with a time for reflection on their high school years.

Couples danced to the music of "Anthem," on May 21, 1983, from eight until midnight. Throughout the evening, they refreshed themselves at the punch fountain and snack table. Parents visited the festivities and took pictures.

Contrary to previous years, couples rushed home to get plenty of sleep. This was in preparation for post prom activities which included a special morning chapel and a trip to Great America.

To finance this big event, the junior class worked hard to raise sufficient funds to produce a successful prom. They held a spaghetti supper, sold cheese and sausage, and served lunch for the students. A great deal of preparation and planning culminated in a wonderful evening full of friends, fun, and memories.

TO SUIT YOUR TASTE

Are you a male with a Varsity letter and want to join a club? Varsity Club might be for you. There are five active members in the club. John Childress, Jim Hennig, Todd Larkin and Tom Watcher diligently worked at selling lunches every noon. Bill Barr helped by filling up the pop machines daily.

The profit from lunches goes toward flowers for Homecoming and awards given out at the Sports Banquet. Varsity Club members also are paying off a debt for the batting cage. If there is enough money left after paying for the cage, they hope to fix the fence by the Baseball field.

PROPHEESIES FROM A CRYSTAL BALL

Madame Voodoo

The future is full of the unexpected, and somethings just can't be explained. Are the seniors just a little leery of what may become of them in the years ahead? Lutheran Staff Helps Students

A Word From Our Headmaster

On behalf of the entire Lutheran High School community, my heartfelt congratulations and deepest appreciation to the Cavalier staff for producing another fine yearbook. It is certainly a wonderful culmination of many hours of diligent work. Thanks so much.

Special congratulations to the Class of 1983 on your graduation. Thanks for everything you have given to Lutheran High in your years here at school. We hope that your experiences and knowledge gained at L.H.S. will in turn help you in your future endeavors. Your teachers and I certainly have enjoyed working with you and wish you God's Richest Blessings! Come back and see us often.

As you go on from here, remember what Christ demanded for true discipleship: "If any man would come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow me." Mark 8:34

A Spirit for Living

We dedicate this page to Sandy Kufahl for her courageous struggle this past year. Because of an automobile accident in July, Sandy suffered from a serious injury to her brain which required surgery and months of extensive rehabilitation and therapy. She improved to such an extent that she was able to take art and English classes here at Lutheran High School while continuing individual tutoring at home. Starting second semester she was able to take on a full schedule and continued to show great improvement. Her faithfulness is admired and her spirit for living is cherished. Sandy, we love you and pray for you always. YOU ARE AN INSPIRATION!
